

READERS' CORNER

☐ COMPREHENSION CHECK

Answer the questions.

1. Why are teenagers great detectives?
2. What traits must a detective friend have?
3. Why do Megan, Alex and Steve decide to investigate?
4. What is the Winthrop family's big problem?
5. Who is good at solving riddles?
6. What is stolen from a New York museum?

☐ TEST: CAN YOU BECOME A GOOD DETECTIVE?

Answer the questions.

- | | | |
|--|------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1. Are you a curious person? | <input type="checkbox"/> YES | <input type="checkbox"/> NO |
| 2. Do you always want to understand strange things? | <input type="checkbox"/> YES | <input type="checkbox"/> NO |
| 3. Are the smallest details important to you? | <input type="checkbox"/> YES | <input type="checkbox"/> NO |
| 4. Are you brave in new situations? | <input type="checkbox"/> YES | <input type="checkbox"/> NO |
| 5. Do you get frightened easily? | <input type="checkbox"/> YES | <input type="checkbox"/> NO |
| 6. If a problem is too big or dangerous,
do you inform the local authorities? | <input type="checkbox"/> YES | <input type="checkbox"/> NO |

If you answered YES to answers 1, 2, 3, 4, 6 then you can become a good detective!

☐ A DEFINITION OF FRIENDSHIP

What is your definition of friendship? Choose the one you prefer.

- 1 a friend helps you if you have a problem.
- 2 a friend likes doing things with you.
- 3 a friend is always kind to you.
- 4 a friend tells you his/her secrets.
- 5 a friend always tells you the truth.
- What traits does your best friend have?

