

READERS' CORNER

COMPREHENSION CHECK

1. Choose the correct answer A, B, C or D

- 1 This aim of this article is to suggest
A staying at home is better than going on holiday
B where to go on holiday
C some good books to read on holiday
D different ways of feeling you're on holiday

2 One things most people like about holidays is

- A the different things they see hear and taste
B travelling in many different ways
C relaxing in the sun
D doing something simple

3 Traditional music

- A is as important as traditional food
B helps to create an authentic atmosphere
C is usually very exotic
D is usually played in the background in restaurants

4 Google Maps

- A provides an adventurous experience without moving from home
B offers holidays in challenging situations
C works in collaboration with UNESCO
D isn't particularly useful for travellers

5 Reading a classic novel

- A gives you all the information necessary to plan your journey
B helps you to imagine you are in another land
C is always a magical experience
D is the best way to spend your holiday

DISCUSSION

2. If you want to 'travel' from home, the article suggests

- Eating typical food
Listening to traditional music
Visiting the country virtually
Reading a book set in the country
- How effective do you think these different ways are?
 - Which would work best for you?
 - Can you think of any other ways to travel without leaving home?

3. Answer the questions.

- Why is going on holiday important?
- Do you prefer to go somewhere new or return to the same place? Why?
- Is it possible to have a good holiday without spending much money?
- What problems can tourism cause?

